A repository of information for our trip to South Carolina in March.

Fripp Island dining with phone numbers

Hunting Island State Park-nesting ground of Loggerhead Turtles. Excellent Shell searching with the ability to find and collect star fish, sand dollars and sea horses. Also boasts South Carolina's only public light house that can be climbed for $2.00. The original light house was destroyed during the Civil War and rebuilt in 1875. It was built of cast iron plates so it could be relocated in case of emergency.
